Leonardo da Vinci 2009 Policies and Practices in LLL

Project period: 2009-2010

The aim of the project: to raise awareness on the importance of transnational cooperation and shared experience in policy planning and policy implementation.

The outcomes of the project:

policy makers, researchers, educators and social partners were provided with an opportunity to find informational resources related to different Lifelong Learning Strategies, policy practices and projects; available good practices were transferred to a different context.

Project partners: 12 organisations from Bulgaria, Lithuania, Poland, Germany, Estonia, Romania, Greece, and Slovenia.

Project was funded by Leonardo da Vinci programme.
